

Contents

Jakob von Uexküll

Foreword

Part I: Theoretical Background

Ellen Christoforatos

Educating in a Globalized World – Challenges for Teachers and Teacher Educators. An Introduction into the Concept of Teaching Right Livelihood.....

Monika Griefahn

Promoting Right Livelihood: Ideas, Work and Vision of the Right Livelihood Award Foundation.....

Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker

Sustainable Development – the Core Task of the 21st Century

Gerd Michelsen

Education for Sustainable Development after 2014: Results, Perspectives and Visions

Bernd Overwien

Education for Sustainable Development and Global Learning – References to Teaching Right Livelihood.....

Aram Ziai

Destruction in the Name of Development – Stopping the Silent Genocide

Claudia Lohrenscheit

Human Rights in Afghanistan

Rita Wodzinski

Solar Energy

“Everything Can Be Changed...”

The Life Stories of Raúl Montenegro, Sima Samar and Dipal Barua. A Dialogical Introduction.....

Part II: Teaching Concepts

Dorit Bosse

Self-Directed Learning – Right Livelihood Award Projects as a Challenge for Student Teachers and Upper Secondary School Students

Bernd Overwien & Claudia Wulff

Education is Exchange! Raúl Montenegro, Biodiversity and the Soybean.....

Nicolas Deutscher, Klaus Moegling, Judith Schäfer & Kirstin Schneider

Teaching Right Livelihood in Practice: Working on Sima Samar’s Lifetime Achievement in Politics & Economics Classes.....

Friederike Heinzl, Christine Gebhard & Kristin Löwenberger

Sima Samar – an Example of Human Rights Education in Primary School.....

Rita Wodzinski & David-Samuel Di Fuccia

Grameen Shakti as a Starting Point for Science Teaching

Frauke Grittner, Verena Meywirth & Matthias Schäfer

Grameen Shakti. “Those Who Enhance the World”– What Right Livelihood
Has To Do with General Studies and Education for Sustainable Development

Marlen Büddefeld

Students Contributing to the Teaching Right Livelihood Project:
Perspectives for Degree Theses.....

Index of Authors